Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 7-10 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach a method for creating clearance holes in a part being worked having first and second sides, the method comprising making a series of slots alternatively in succession and along an axis of the first side and the second side of the part, the slot providing a clearance hole, wherein the clearance hole has a length required for the part, while the depths of the slots is half of a thickness of the part being worked, plus a radius of a stay bolt or cable, plus tolerance of respective materials, these in combination with the rest of the limitations in the claim..

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
